

APPENDIX 1

ABSTRACT

A bituminous upper layer draining blanket comprising two partially superposed layers whereof the upper layer contains aggregate with low particle-size distribution and a modified bituminous binder, and whereof the lower layer contains aggregate with high particle-size distribution and a bituminous binder, characterised in that the upper partial layer comprises an added filler material between 2 and 11% in weight.